

JOY RIDE PODCAST

Episode #7

Theme: Joy Found In Freedom From Addiction

Guest: Richard Pidgley

Richard Pidgley grew up in a children's home, following his mothers addiction to Alcohol. This led to a life of crime addiction to fill the emptiness that he felt. He later found faith in God which totally transformed his life and gave him a new perspective on life and sense of Joy.

'The things I thought would make me happy, led me to be more miserable'

- The wrong decisions that Richard made, stemmed from issues in his past. Consider the issues and challenges from your past that may be impacting your decision making today.
- Our search may not be as extreme as Richard's journey, but many of us will be searching for joy in the wrong place. Where are we searching for lasting joy?
- Richard encouraged us to consider that we are loved by God and he can change your life if we let him. God is just a short prayer away.
